Man Sought In Threat to Kill Garrison

S-1 4/10/70

A search was underway today for a man, reportedly armed with several rifles and shotguns, who has threatened to kill District Attorney Jim Garrison.

FBI agents alerted New Orleans authorities that the man, driving a 1965 blue sedan with North Carolina license plates, had made the threat during a stop in Marietta, Ga., Saturday.

A spokesman for the district attorney's office said a car fitting the description had been spotted about 1 a. m. today on Esplanade but the man eluded capture.

The FBI report said the threat was made in conversation with a Marietta service station attendant, who noticed the guns and a quantity of ammunition on a back seat.
